Continuation of Disposition of Claims: Claims pending in the application are 1,3-7,11,13,22-24,29,30,32,34-38,42,44,50,53-56,60,61,63,64 and 67-93.

1. Claims 1,3-7,11,13,22-24,29,30,32,34-38,42,44,50,53-56,60,61,63,64 and 67-93 are pending in this application. Claims 67-93 are newly-added in the amendment of 21 April 2009.

2. Claims 1,3-7,11,13,22-24,29,30,32,34-38,42,44,50,53-56,60,61 and 67-93 are allowable over the prior art of record in the application.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 63 and 64 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 63 as newly-amended, it is unclear in context what the "software code portions" are that perform the method of claim 32. That is to say, claim 63 fails to state clearly and definitely what the claimed "software portions" are, so one reading the claim would not be on notice of what is claimed. Please see MPEP 2173.

On lines 1-2 of claim 63 as newly-amended, it is unclear in context what is meant by "computer readable medium product."

In claim 64 as newly-amended, it is unclear in context what the "software code portions" are that perform the method of claim 32. That is to say, claim 64 fails to state clearly and definitely what the claimed "software portions" are, so one reading the claim would not be on notice of what is claimed. Please see MPEP 2173.

5. It is not possible at this time to state if there is potentially allowable subject matter in claims 63 and 64 in that neither of these claims states what the “code portions” are that reside on a computer-readable medium.

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
